From Your Council and Staff

- Have you ever asked what difference being Reformed really makes? As we remember the 500th anniversary of the Reformation today, we remind everyone that our Reformed identity is a biblically-based framework for building a meaningful life that is shaped by knowing we belong to Jesus. Look in your mail slot and in the Information Center for a handout that describes 10 ways our Reformed identity shapes our daily living and our Christian calling.
-Pastors Henry and Stanley

Joel VanDyke: Missional Living

- Trinity is excited to have our Missionary Joel Van Dyke in Rock Valley this week. Joel is planning a session on Saturday, November 4 from 8:30AM-1:00PM to discuss Missional Living. We will meet here at Trinity in the Agape Room downstairs. Lunch will be provided at 12:30 as we wrap up the event with questions and answers. Please invite your family and friends and join us! A group from Trinity visited Joel earlier this year and would heartily endorse spending a few hours with Joel. Please reach out to the group (Brent & Brooklyn VanOort, Mary DeGroot, Betty VandenBos, Elaine Wynia, Jim & Dotty Dirksen, Duane & Arlis Obbink, Zach & Stacie Eckardt, Ron & Pat DeWeerd, Von Postma, Ivan & Nancy Dorhout, Pat VanderPol, Kathy Moos, Shelli Kollis) if you have any questions about Joel and his work. You can also get additional information at www.streetpsalms.org
