

Letter #5 >> April 3, 2020

Dear fellow travelers of the Way, striving to keep in step with the Holy Spirit,

In light of everything that has been canceled because of COVID-19, your council and staff remind you that hope has not been canceled! We can hear the apostle Paul's blessing to the church in Rome as a truth for us to grab hold of as well:

“May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.” – Romans 15:13

Here are some things we're looking forward to in the coming week or so that we pray will help increase everyone's hope:

Palm Sunday:

The pandemic won't prevent us from hearing children shout “Hosanna!” this Sunday morning. We're excited to include in our worship a video of Trinity CRC kids singing praises to our King!

Starting Next Week:

Join the staff for conversation and prayer via Zoom each weekday at 11:30am. Please email henry@trinitycrc.com for your invitation to participate. Simply listen in or offer a few words, be part of one or be part of them all – join as you like and are able.

Good Friday:

We're crafting a meaningful service in which we hear Jesus' seven words from the cross accompanied with reflections, music, and art. It will be next Friday at 7pm.

Easter Sunday:

We're at the pivotal part of The Story announcing and celebrating Jesus' resurrection! We'll include in our morning broadcast some of the songs we sang together as a congregation last year in a full worship center with the beautiful sound of numerous instruments.

In case you're wondering: After consulting with medical professionals, we decided to currently limit the number of people involved in our services to no more than 10. Henry & Grace, Stanley & Monica, Gary, Skyler, Von, Lucas, Merle, and Natalie have offered to serve regularly. We are enjoying the challenge of finding creative ways to enhance our online worship and welcome any ideas you have.

Finally: You may have noticed that there's been a select group of special people coming to our worship services (pictured here). They don't say much, but they have cheerful smiles which encourage the worship leaders. A big Thank You to the kids who made cutout people for the worship center! Everyone is welcome to add more people to the crowd!

As usual, we look forward to you tuning in to our services on Sunday at 9:30am and 6:00pm.

Shalom,

Trinity CRC Executive Team and Staff
