A big "THANK YOU" to everyone who led and attended our Christmas services! We celebrate God's gifts in those who crafted the orders of worship, sang, read, lit candles, played instruments, offered special numbers, arranged the décor, worked in the birds nest, served in the nursery, provided hospitality, and prayed over our times together. To God be the glory!

Care Group listings have been placed in your church mailboxes. Please look them over and get familiar with those in your group and find ways to connect with each other. Take note that the groups have changed a bit due to new group facilitators and new elders and deacons.

This morning, we celebrate the baptism of little Tobias Cramer, son and brother of Andrea, Lily and Layla. We will also have the installation of our new deacons and elders.

"The Church at Work": Next Sunday evening we will be celebrating the work the church of God is doing around the world. We will be hearing from Tairin Van Tol, Breckyn Top, and Aftyn De Weerd. They will each be sharing regarding where they have been, what they have been doing, and where they are seeing God at work. Plan to join us as we gather for this meaningful time of learning, encouragement, and reflection on God's work among the nations.

From your Council and Staff
